Mr. Nathan Cleary
Abercrombie & Fitch Company
Madison Avenue at 45th Street
New York 17, New York

Dear Mr. Cleary:

I must apologize for the delay in forwarding to you the enclosed check in the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) to cover certain additional purchases of special clothing from Abercrombie & Fitch Company, which you were good enough to handle for me as a supplement to my original order of last month.

Although having a complete account at hand, I believe that this amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) added to the Fourteen Hundred Dollars ($1400.00), which I turned over to your Mr. Shade on or about 22 May, should cover all purchases to date together with their shipping costs. It would be helpful to me in the reconciliation of my account if you were able to furnish me with a detailed statement of all purchases made to date, which statement would include any credit that remains in my favor on your books.

As we discussed on the telephone, I shall advise you as soon as possible of additional [redacted] requirements in order that you may have as much lead time as the situation permits. If it is agreeable with you, I shall make additional deposits of funds to this account commensurate with additional purchases and subsequent to communicating my requirement to you by phone. It goes without saying that I sincerely appreciate the many extra services which I have received through your good offices and those of Mr. Bryant.

Sincerely yours,

[redacted] FOIAb3b
